Comply with requirements and exercise the rights of the Company or data subject set out in applicable legislation on employment, social security and social protection, or collective contracts, in addition to regulations set by relevant authorities and supervisory bodies.

Requirement to meet the Company's legal obligations in relation to "sensitive" data, as per article 9.2 letter b).

2 years after completion of the selection process

Once the aforementioned retention period has lapsed the data will be destroyed or made anonymous compatibly with technical erasure and backup procedures.

DATA PROVISION

Compulsory for sourcing and selecting personnel. A refusal to provide data makes these activities impossible and means the candidate cannot be considered for the role.

DATA RECIPIENTS

The Data may be communicated to parties acting as independent data controllers or processed on behalf of the Company by parties appointed as data processors, which are Company's supplier for the purposes of selection, recruitment and assess of candidates, who are provided with suitable operating instructions.

For purposes connected to or instrumental in sourcing and selecting candidates, the Data could be shared with other companies, as autonomous data controllers, within the group of the Company. A complete list of companies within the group of the Company is available here https://www.otb.net/en/our-companies/

PARTIES AUTHORISED TO PROCESS DATA

The data may be processed by employees in company departments who are responsible for carrying out the activities outlined above and have been authorised to process the data and received suitable operating instructions.

PERSONAL DATA TRANSFERS OUTSIDE THE EU

The data may be transferred to non-EU countries, in particular whose data protection level is deemed adequate by the European Commission in accordance with article 45 of the GDPR after signing standard contractual clauses adopted/approved by the European Commission in accordance with article 46, 2, letters c) and d).

DATA SUBJECTS' RIGHTS - COMPLAINT TO THE SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY

By contacting the Company via e-mail sent to hr dataprivacy@otb.net, data subjects can ask the controller for access to personal data, or the correction or deletion of personal data, and also have the right to restrict processing of the data in the cases set out in article 18 GDPR, and object to processing in the case of legitimate interests of the controller.

Furthermore, in the case where processing is based on a contract and carried out with automated tools, data subjects have the right to receive the personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, and to transmit the data to another data controller without obstruction.

Data subjects have the right to lodge a complaint to the competent Supervisory Authority.
